

Master's Degree: Physical Education/ Teaching and Coaching

Whatever your needs may be....

The Master's Program in Teaching and Coaching is an excellent way to:

Become a Better
Teacher or Coach

Acquire AA Mississippi Teaching License

Learn about Physical Education Curriculum
Models and National Standards

Conduct Research on Teaching and Learning,
Physical Education,
Coaching or Motor Behavior

"Expand Your Horizons" with Electives from Sport
Administration or Exercise
Science

Departmental Website: www.kinesiology.msstate.edu

Sign-up Now!

Program Features:

- Evening classes to accommodate teachers in the field
- Core classes in Teaching and Coaching
- Flexibility of elective hours
- Informative guest speakers and research presentations
- Thesis / Research and Non-Thesis options
- Department of Kinesiology graduate assistantships include a tuition waiver and stipend
- Other assistantships available through Athletics and Recreational Sports.

For further information:

Dr. John Lamberth
Graduate Coordinator
MSU Department of Kinesiology
235 McCarthy Gym
PO Box 6186
Mississippi State, MS 39762

(662) 325-0906
jgl@ra.msstate.edu